

General Rules governing all Club Competitions
FOR WEIMARANERS AND WEIMARANERS (LONGHAIR)

1. PURPOSE OF CLUB COMPETITIONS

- (a) To preserve, improve and promote the Weimaraner through active competitions in the disciplines of
 - (i) Utility Field Trials
 - (ii) Retrieving Trials for Gundogs
 - (iii) Obedience, Endurance and Tracking Trials
 - (iv) Agility
 - (v) Conformation Shows
- (b) To recognise the achievements of Weimaraners in the preceding disciplines.
- (c) To promote good fellowship and social contact among Weimaraner owners through friendly rivalry in active competition.

2. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of these Rules, the following definitions and abbreviations will apply :

Club: Weimaraner Club of Qld (Inc)
CCC: Canine Control Council (Qld)
Year/ Point Score Year: 1st November to the 31st October the following calendar year.

3. PERPETUAL TROPHIES

- (a) Where designated in these Rules, the overall annual winners will receive perpetual trophies on which suitable inscriptions will give appropriate details of each winning Weimaraner and its owner.
- (b) Perpetual Trophies are not to leave Queensland
- (c) Each perpetual trophy shall remain in the possession of its recipient until 14th November of the following year. (Trophy not to be taken out of Queensland).
- (d) Perpetual trophies shall be returned to the Trophy Officer by 14th November for presentation to the next annual winners. (Trophies to be returned in the same condition they were received in. Trophies to be sighted by President and/or Secretary upon return).
- (e) Trophy Officer is responsible for maintaining a current list of trophy holders. Trophy Officer is to ensure the return and engraving of all trophies prior to presentation.
- (f) Winners of perpetual trophies will also be presented with a suitably inscribed replica trophy at the same time as the perpetual to keep as a permanent memento.
- (g) All perpetual trophies remain the property of the Club. If there is reasonable cause to believe any perpetual trophy may be lost, damaged or destroyed, then the Club committee may take appropriate action for the trophy's return and to recover costs from the current holder to restore it to its original condition or replace it as appropriate (subject to fair wear and tear).

4. ELIGIBILITY

All Weimaraners owned by financial members of the Club are eligible to compete in this competition. Country Weimaraner/Longhair Show Dog/Bitch/Puppy can only be awarded as per Rule 30 of these rules. Should a lapse in membership occur, any points gained during that lapse in membership will be ineligible for inclusion in Club competition.

5. TROPHY DONATIONS

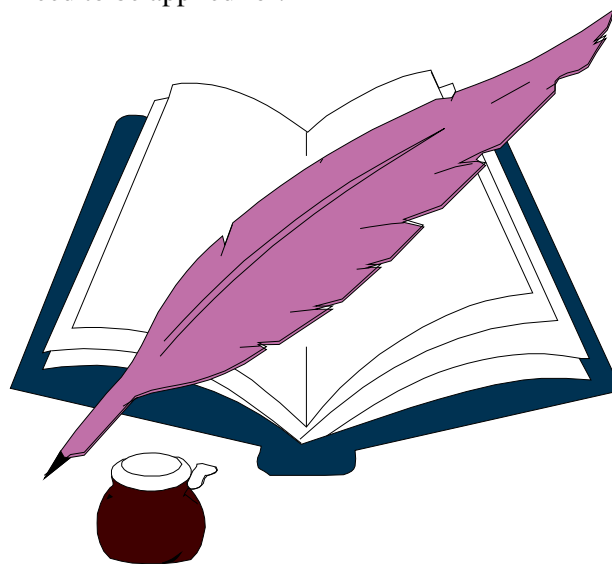

Any trophy donated to the Club must have associated conditions supplied in writing before it will be accepted. Subject to these conditions, the trophy will remain the property of the Club.

6. PUBLISHED RESULTS ONLY

Only results which have been published in the Club's Newsletter, "Versatility", will be considered for any Club Competition. Eligible results must be received by the Show Reporter, Obedience or Trial Officer (as appropriate) within three (3) months of the event in order to be published.

7. COLLECTION OF RESULTS

- (a) Results must be forwarded direct to the Show Reporter, Obedience or Trial Officer (as appropriate) for each event. This is the responsibility of the owner/exhibitor of the Weimaraner concerned.
- (b) Obedience, Show and Retrieving Trophy Officers to keep records of all results that have been published in the magazine, tally them at the end of the year and work out who has won the respective trophies. This will then be taken to a Management meeting to show who has won and how the result was calculated. End of year trophies no longer need to be applied for.

VERSATILE WEIMARANER OF THE YEAR

8. PREAMBLE

- (a) Today's Weimaraner is still what it was bred to be in the first place, a Versatile Hunting Dog. Through active competition, the Club provides members with constructive, enjoyable opportunities for meaningful participation in the preservation of characteristics which collectively make Weimaraners of quality.
- (b) Although intended to give competitors and their Weimaraners alike maximum enjoyment along with a well deserved sense of achievement, this competition is not meant to be easy. On the contrary, the title, Versatile Weimaraner of the Year, must be earned. Each Weimaraner that wins this coveted award must clearly demonstrate that it is, in fact, a superb example of the breed in natural ability, intelligence and conformation.

9. TITLE AND TROPHY

The annual winner of this competition shall receive a perpetual trophy and be recognised by the Club as The Versatile Weimaraner of the Year.

10. ELIGIBILITY

All Weimaraners owned by financial members of the Club are eligible to compete providing points have been scored from at least three different disciplines, as defined in rule 11(a) of these rules, one of which must be Conformation. 75% of results in each discipline must be gained in Queensland.

11. COMPETITION OUTLINE

- (a) The Versatile Weimaraner of the Year shall be selected on a Points Score System (as per Rule 12 of these rules) based on achievement in the three disciplines of competition open to Weimaraners,
 - (i) FIELD TRIALS
Under this heading comes the following two types of trials :
 - (a) UTILITY FIELD TRIALS
 - (b) RETRIEVING TRIALS FOR GUNDOGS

- (a) In the event of there being more than one Weimaraner with the same top score, the outright winner will be chosen by a countback of the highest scores from :
- (i) Utility Field Trials.....and should the tie not be broken, then
 - (ii) Retrieving Trials for Gundogs.....and should the tie still not be broken, then
 - (iii) Obedience, Tracking, Agility Trials and Endurance.....and should the tie still not be broken, then
 - (iv) Show and should the tie still not be broken, then
 - (v) 11(c) of these Rules will be rescinded and should the tie still not be broken, then
 - (vi) Joint Winners will be proclaimed, with two replicas being awarded and the older dog shall hold the perpetual trophy for the first six months and the younger one will hold the perpetual trophy for the second six months.

WEIMARANER VERSATILE PUPPY OF THE YEAR

14. PREAMBLE

Conditioning of a Weimaraner during the first year of its life generally determines its future. This contest has been devised to encourage owners, especially new owners, to give their puppies firm foundations for the full development on inherent Weimaraner versatility.

15. TITLE AND TROPHY

The annual winner of this competition shall receive a perpetual trophy and be recognised by the Club as the Weimaraner Versatile Puppy of the Year.

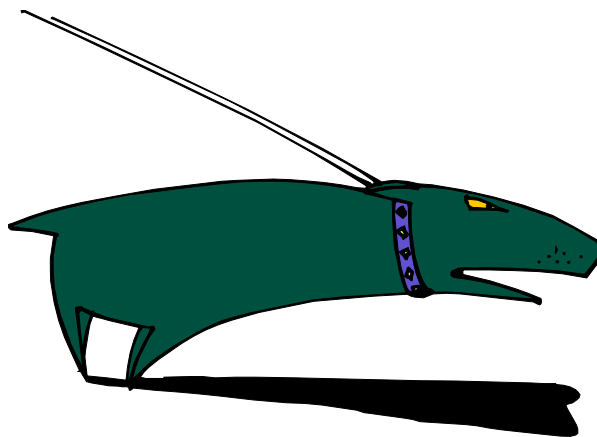

The trophy is not to leave Queensland.

16. ELIGIBILITY

All Weimaraners owned by financial members of the Club are eligible to compete from six months of age up to and including 18 months of age. 75% of results in each discipline must be gained in Queensland.

17. COMPETITION OUTLINE

- (a) Weimaraner Versatile Puppy of the Year shall be selected on a Points Score System based on best eight (8) Conformation Show results.
- (b) Although Utility Field, Retrieving and Obedience results will not be directly calculated in this competition, nevertheless, the puppy will still be required to establish that it has commenced active competition in these three disciplines (these disciplines being the same as quoted in Versatile Dog of the Year). Dogs do not necessarily have to win or place, but must have had some recognition in these fields, e.g. completed stakes.
- (c) If any dogs place in the three disciplines, the point system will be the same as Versatile Dog of the Year.
- (d) Any eligible Weimaraner over 6 months and up to 18 months of age during the defined year will have its total points compared with other Weimaraners at any time during the same defined year.
- (e) Any dog who has not reached the age of 18 months prior to the end of the year may compete in both years, however points cannot be accumulated from one point score year to the next.

WEIMARANER SHOW DOG/BITCH OF THE YEAR
WEIMARANER (LONGHAIR) SHOW DOG/BITCH OF THE YEAR

18. TITLE AND TROPHY

The annual winners of this competition shall receive a perpetual trophy and replica trophy and be recognised by the Club as Weimaraner /Weimaraner - Longhair Show Dog and Show Bitch of the Year.

19. ELIGIBILITY

All Weimaraners owned by financial members of the Club are eligible to compete

20. NOMINATION OF SHOWS

- (a) Shows designated as Point Score Shows will be confirmed as being held as early as possible before the commencement of the point score year (01 Nov –31 Oct). This should be completed within 30 days of publication of the following calendar year's show dates in the CCC Journal "Dog World".
- (b) If a designated point score show is cancelled then an alternative show is to be nominated and voted on by show of hands at the next general meeting. This show/s must comply with Rule 20 (c) & (d) of these rules.
- (c) Thirteen Point Score Shows will be nominated, one per month when possible. The majority of the shows are to be held at Durack with the balance to be distributed as evenly as possible to regional areas up to a maximum of 250kls from the Brisbane GPO within the state of Queensland.
- (d) The following guidelines should also be considered when selecting Point Score Shows:
 - (i) preference should be given to shows that over previous years have consistently offered interstate or overseas judges
 - (ii) all Point Score Shows to be held on Weekends or Public holidays
 - (iii) grounds and show organisation are of a consistently high standard
 - (iv) regional shows to include Toowoomba, Gold Coast and Sunshine Coast areas.
- (e) The Weimaraner Club of Qld (Inc) Championship Show will automatically be designated Point Score Shows.
- (f) Once a Point Score Year has commenced, no changes can be made to the designated list of shows unless a point score show is cancelled by the operating club. If this occurs Rule 20 (b) is to be invoked.
- (g) When nominating Point Score Shows no more than one (1) of the thirteen Point Score Shows should be held on the same date as any Retrieving Trial or Utility Field Trials. A trial conducted outside Queensland or beyond 500km of the G.P.O. Brisbane will not be taken into consideration.
- (h) Interstate Royals should not be taken into consideration when nominating Point Score dates.

21. POINT SCORING SYSTEM

- (a) Points (as per rule 21 (b) of these rules) are accumulated over thirteen (13) Point Score Shows. An owner/exhibitor is required to nominate up to a maximum of eight (8) results, from the thirteen (13) designated Point Score Shows, when applying for the award. Competitors must compete at a minimum of (6) six shows to be eligible for the award.

- (b) Points for Weimaraner/Weimaraner –Longhair Show Dog/Bitch of the Year are awarded as per the following schedule:
 - 1 Point for 3rd Place in class.
 - 2 Points for 2nd Place in class.
 - 3 Points for 1st Place in class.
 - 5 Points for Reserve Challenge.
 - 10 Points for Challenge Dog, Challenge Bitch.
- (c) All Points awarded at Point Score Shows are cumulative for the current Point Score Year.
- (d) Veteran Class and Property Classes will not be recognised in the Point Score system.

22. TIE BREAKERS

- (a) In the event of there being more than one Weimaraner with the same top score, the outright winner will be chosen by a countback of the highest scores from :
 - (i) the dog/bitch with the most Challenges awarded at Point Scoresand should the tie not be broken, then
 - (ii) the dog/bitch with the most Reserve Challenges awarded at Point Scores.....and should the tie still not be broken, then
 - (iii) the dog/bitch with the most first placings in Class awarded at Point Scores.....and should the tie still not be broken, then
 - (v) the dog/bitch with the most second placings in Class awarded at Point Scores.....and should the tie still not be broken, then
 - (vi) the dog/bitch with the most third placings in Class awarded at Point Scores.....and should the tie still not be broken, then
 - (vii) Joint Winners will be proclaimed, with two replicas being awarded and the older dog shall hold the perpetual trophy for the first six months and the younger one will hold the perpetual trophy for the second six months.

RETRIEVING DOG OF THE YEAR

- 23. The rules for Retrieving Dog of the Year will be the same as that of the rules contained within Versatile Dog of the Year, rule 12 (b) pertaining to Retrieving Trials for Gundogs, except that a minimum of 3 placings to be awarded and if competing in Novice or Restricted a 1st place must be gained in the current point score year.
